Parental Bill of Rights

FLAG's Parental Bill of Rights is a helpful resource for parents to use to take back control of the curriculum being taught to their children in K-12 public schools. Parents can use this Bill of Rights as a guide to determine whether their children are being taught a proper education based upon civics, the principles of freedom, and a love of our country that prepares them for the future.

Whereas I am a parent and taxpayer of our public schools, I demand the right for my child to receive a high-quality education . . .

- That promotes the preservation of freedom and our exceptional American value system for generations to come.
- That declares ALL Americans are privileged success in life is achieved through education, hard work and dedication.
- That affirms America is the land of opportunity and the greatest country in the history of the world.
- That is free from the shaming, guilt and bullying that is the foundation of Marxist, anti-America Critical Race Theory (CRT), racial identify, white supremacy or systematic racism curriculums.
- That will never require teachers or administrators to take part in professional development programs promoting anti-America teaching such as CRT, racial identity, white supremacy or systematic racism.
- That is explicitly prohibited from promoting or teaching predatory gender counseling, transgenderism, homosexuality, bisexuality or gender-fluidity to students.
- That will never encourage a student to change their name or pronoun without written parental consent.
- That never takes the authority away from parents to decide whether their child will wear a mask in school or be given the opportunity to earn an education inside a classroom surrounded by peers.
